7	ISKON, Bhiwandi	ISKCON Bhiwandi started the Food for Life program (Annadaan) in March 2020 when the nation reached a standstill due to the COVID'19 pandemic. Daily wagers, migrant workers, old age homes, homeless shelters, pregnant women, and slums were provided with one nutritious meal from our ISKCON Bhiwandi Kitchen facility. Project title: Installation of Solar Panels at Food For Life Kitchen - ISKCON Bhiwandi To aid us further increase our food distribution, we plan to expand the capacity of our Annadaan Kitchen facility. As part of this, we plan to adopt a more Sustainable and Green Energy approach so as to be environmentally efficient. We also bear the pinch of increase in Electricity Consumption and regular power cuts which halts activity as well sometimes delays the Food Distribution Programme as the cooking is not completed on time. Hence as a solution ISKON seek to install solar panels on the rooftop of the existing facility to make their entire Annadaan activity environmentally friendly as well as cost effective.	25,66,190.00
